Shopping

Last Saturday my family went (to go) shopping. Mum tried on (to try on) a new dress. My sister Claire didn't like (not to like) its colour, so mum decided (to decide) to buy a different one. Little Ben needed (to need) a new pair of shoes. The first pair fitted (to fit) perfectly and he was (to be) happy. He showed (to show) them to everyone in the shop. With Dad it took (to take) a little longer. First he couldn't (cannot) find the white shirts. Then he asked (to ask) Mum what she thought (to think) about the shirts. And then he didn't buy (not to buy) the shirt, because he found (to find) it too expensive. I saw (to see) this cool sweater and I knew (to know) I had to (must) have it. It was (to be) warm and stylish and my best friend had (to have) the same. I checked (to check) how much money I had (to have). I didn't have (not to have) enough. So I asked (to ask) Dad if I could (can) have my pocket money for the coming week. Dad said (to say) yes, but he asked (to ask) me to help him wash the car that afternoon. I wasn't (not to be) happy about that, but I agreed (to agree) of course, because I bought (to buy) the coolest sweater in the world.
