On the phone with grandma:

Granny: Hello, Max. Tell me about your night in the old castle.

Max: Well, on Thursday evening my parents and I decided (to decide) to spend the weekend in a hotel. We stayed (to stay) at this expensive old castle. When we arrived (to arrive), we first looked (to look) at the big stone wall with signs and flags in front of the building. Inside a concierge helped (to help) us with our suitcases. He talked (to talk) to us for a while and showed (to show) us our room. He didn't look (not look) very happy.

Granny: Why?

Max: The day before day at eight o' clock a ghost danced (to dance) through the lobby. At first we only laughed (to laugh). Well, this is what happened (to happen): our dining room looked (to look) fantastic and the food tasted (to taste) great. After dinner Mum and Dad wanted (to want) to go to the hotel bar for a drink and I brushed (to brush) my teeth, watched (to watch) TV and played in the lobby. Then suddenly some scary music started (to start). A white ghost moved (to move) very slowly towards me and climbed (to climb) on the piano. I whispered (to whisper): "I'm so scared (to scare)." Then I shouted (to shout) for help. The music stopped (to stop) immediately and everybody clapped (to clap).

Granny: And the ghost?

Max: Only then I realized (to realize) that it was Halloween.

Granny: Oh dear.
